

SPECIAL AWARDS

MARSHALL AND VETA LEWIS AWARD

The Marshall and Veta Lewis Award was established in July 1992. This award was funded by a donation from Marshall Lewis in honor of his wife Veta. Both Marshall and Veta were active in couple's fashion competition and the award is to encourage the participation of couples in the fashion competition as well as showing these beautiful fashions. The award will be presented at a National meet or International meet following these criteria:

1. The award is to be presented only in traditional Fashion Model Judging and is issued in each of the three categories:
Original
Reproduction
Model A Era Image
2. Entrants must be members of MAFCA and enter Fashion Judging competition as an adult couple.
3. Entrants must complement each other in attire.
Example: both dressed in daytime attire or both dressed in sports attire, etc.
4. Each entrant will be judged individually. Each entrant must have first place points or better to qualify for the couple's award.
5. The combined scores of the two entrants will be used for the couple's award competition.
6. The couples in the Original category, Reproduction category, and the Model A Era Image category, with the highest combined points will be awarded the Marshall and Veta Lewis Award.
7. In case of a tie in points, the tie will be broken by a decision of the judging team. Decision of the judging team will be final.
8. Couples may not enter in other National or International meets in the same outfit for this award. Couples may enter other National or International meets in different outfits for this award.
